

Emergency Supply Operations Center

Major Brent Goddard, USMC
Emergency Supply Operations Division
Business Operations

Mission

The Mission of the Emergency Supply Operations Center Is to Provide Emergency Supply Support to The Warfighter in Order to Ensure Combat Readiness of The United States Military

What We Do

Right Item
Right Time
Right Place
Right Price
Every Time

Emergency Procurements

Emergency Requisitions

RODs/SDRs

Requisition

Violations

Data Entry

ESOC Evolution

Excellence Through Change

1997

1, 2 and 3
999/NMCS

Commodity Oriented

1998

Responsive
SAR

Weapon
System
Oriented

1999

Preemptive Responsive

Future

ESOC Standardization

- Recognized Need
- PAT/Working group established
- Consensus of Roles and Functions
 - 24/7
 - Agreement on preemptive/responsive
 - Mirrors DSCR's expedite methodology
 - EARS software deployed to all ICPs
 - Agreement on SARs/Army CMRP timeframes and actions
- Goal is to have DLSC standardization approval by 1 Jul 00

ESOC Focus

- Preemptive
 - Priority 1
 - Priority 2 and 3, 999/NMCS/PMCS
 - IPG1 JCS Project Codes
- Responsive
 - IPG1s With a SAR

ESOC PROCESS

ESOC Tools

- Stock
- Lateral Support/AMARC/DRMO
- Surplus/ILS/Worldwide Locator
- PC Stock Contract
 - Expedite Award
 - Diversion
 - Expedite Partial Qty
 - Expedite First Article
- Substitute/Next Higher Assy
- Emergency Buy

Procurement Support

- Dedicated to ESOC Support
- Unusual and Compelling Buys
- Work As Team With IM Based on Weapon System
- Focused on Warfighter

Procurement Tools

- Unusual and Compelling Buy
- Letter of Notice Award
- Contingency Procurement Procedures with Contractors
- Limited Sources based on Urgency of Need
- Pay Premium Prices for Expedited Deliveries
- Direct Buy Program to support downed aircraft
- Local Purchase

Workload

- 300 - 400 SARs per day
- 100 HM per day
 - Does not include phone calls or management actions
- Total: In excess of 10,000 expedite actions per month
- Working in excess of 1,500 Emergency PRs
 - 120-150 Awards per week

Emergency Supply Operations

“A Campaign Plan That Cannot Be Logistically Supported Is Not a Plan at All, but Simply an Expression Of Fanciful Wishes.”

John F. Meehan III,
“The Operational
Trilogy”